

To allow "local" media to own TV and radio stations in their local circulation areas will be the death of the poples voice in this country!! There is no such thing as "local" media and you will be allowing for the futher consolidation of the free press into just a few hands. That model failed in the USSR.